FOREWORD - - - -

After long weary months of writing, re-writing, picture taking and sleepless nights, we, the members of the Echo Staff, have finally completed our task in the publication of the eighth edition of the Echo.

Leaving Washington High and saying goodbye to our associates is not an easy task. It is a moment of conflicting emotions, proud of our accomplishments, and yet, sad to be leaving.

We feel fortunate that our lives have been influenced by our advisers, and we hope that the others who come after us will take advantage of their leadership.

With one last look and a fond farewell, we hope that this book will be not only the story of life at Washington, but also a tangible memento of all our high school years.

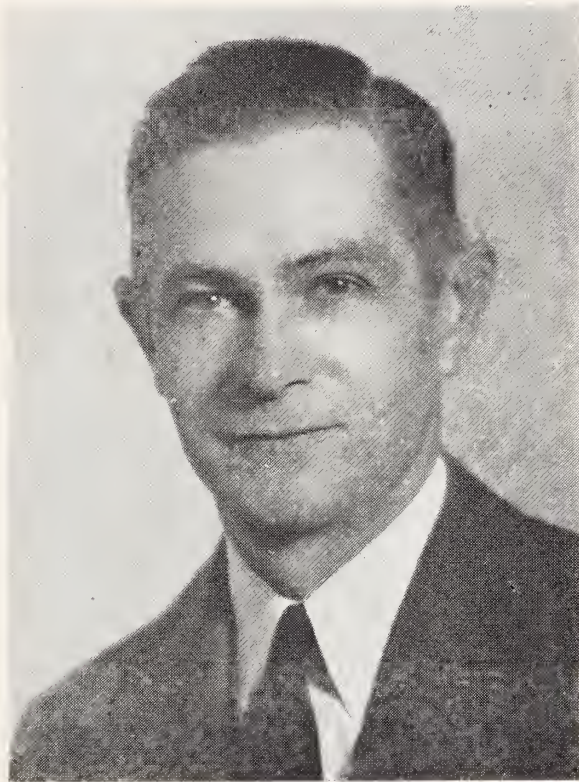

THE EDITOR

- - - DEDICATION

To Mr. John L. Livingston, respected faculty member and former bandmaster, who, through his interest in broadening student activities, has inspired many boys and girls to continue their study of and participation in band music, the eighth edition of "The ECHO" is hereby dedicated.

WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL ALMA MATER

Reared against the western sky
Our Alma Mater stands high
With out-stretched hands she beckons will all heed her call
Hear, as she speaks, with wisdom part “Let me, oh let me teach you Truth and Freedom all”.

Chorus:

Hail Alma Mater! Hail Alma Mater!
We thy sons and daughters heed Thee.
Hail Alma Mater!
Hail Alma Mater! Hail! Hail! Hail!

Words and Music by E. M. Kelly
Edited by L. E. Thompson

W. H. S. MARCH

March! March on to victory
Our School shall never die
Our drums will always beat for you
Our hearts are loyal, good and true
Rah! Rah!
March! March on to victory
We will always love and cherish
Thee and we will lead you on to victory
With our colors gold and blue

“THE TIME HAS COME”

And now we must leave here Washington,
And now we have a harder battle to fight.
We have hidden our childish things forever
We are looking for a future that is bright.

Our last four years have been some hectic ones
We have striven for our one and only goal
To be of Character, Courtesy, and Culture
Which is our motto and we'll forever uphold.

We think of you in days of prosperity
In parting, you will not be forgotten
May your buildings embrace all with sincerity
Dear old Washington, our lovely “Alma Mater.”

By Gloria Wilhelmina Lester

SENIOR CLASS SONG

(Tune “You’re Breaking My Heart”)

It’s breaking our hearts to be leaving,
We love you dear Washington High,
Our hearts will always be with you.
Your memory will ere’ be with us.
It’s breaking our hearts to be leaving,
The teachers so kind and so true,
It saddens us so to be going,
Thy light will guide our steps,
As years go by
Your banners fly
For those who follow in our steps.
We’ll cherish you when we have gone far
You will always be our guiding star.

—June Lee Thomas

Class History

I

The foundation for our building of education was erected when we entered through the portals of the Washington High School. There was, in our group of unskilled laborers called Freshmen, a total number of 246. The blue print for the building was given to us by different foreman called Freshmen advisers. They were Mrs. V. K. Newell, Miss M. B. Bugg, Mrs. I. E. Washington, Mr. P. H. Williams, and Mrs. M. G. Frazier. Tools were issued along with instruction as to how we were to conduct ourselves while completing the building.

In applying ourselves to this type of work we were ignorant and excited. We made our share of mistakes, but as the years progressed we settled down and were able through constant guidance from our advisers to build a good foundation in laying the first course of the building of education. That year we took an active part in the school life, participating in many school activities. In the band we had many representatives who were Owen Ivey, Fabius Tucker, Delmar Jones, James Wallace, Boykin Gartrell, Navarro Jeffries, and Hubert Hayes. We were also represented in the Glee Club — Jolethia Doe, Gloria Lester, Emma Cheek, Audrey Jarnagin, Jeannette Fields, June Thomas, George Adams, Thomas Avery, Willie Haywood, Pearl Wilson, Virginia Taylor. Our representatives of the student council were Pearl Wilson and Leanna Durham. We were also represented on the football team by Ellis Jones. The highest average that year was obtained by Emma Cheek. We were represented on the office staff in the person of Anne Goode, Cardrienne Perrin, Bessie McNeil and Marguerite Butcher. The class officers for that year were: president, Robert Adams; secretary, Mildred Blount; assistant secretary, Dorothy Nichols; treasurer, Emma Cheek and reporter, Marguerite Butcher.

Although we have been common laborers and unskilled the job had been set before us. We have tried to be as active as possible in our first high school year. The building of education then, was beginning to take on a modern appearance. Toward the end of the year, we had laid 88 courses. We now must stop for our summer vacation and look forward to returning to Washington High School as Sophomores.

II

We returned to our job of completing our building of education in the Fall of '47. We rested and were eligible to resume our construction job. We started off the year by electing the class officers. President, James Wallace; vice president, Boykin Gartrell; secretary, Mildred Blount; assistant secretary, Sydney Roberts; treasurer, Emma Cheek.

We were lucky enough to have for our advisers Miss Bugg, Mrs. Newell, Mrs. Frazier and Mr. Williams.

Our class greatly reduced in number to the total of 169. This did not hinder us in laying our 167 courses in the building of education. We were represented in the band that year by Owen Ivey, James Wallace, Boykin Gartrell, Navarro Jeffries, Fabius Tucker and Algernon Daly. We were represented on the football team that year by Ellis Jones. William Dunston was the manager of the W. H. Little Blues that year. The highest average was obtained by Emma Cheek. We were very lucky that year in doing something that had not been done by a sophomore class in many years. In winning Miss W. H. S. Contest, our representative was Juanita Freeman. On the office staff we had as representatives Anne Goode, Cardrienne Perrin, Marguerite Butcher, Bessie McNeil, and Ola Mae Evans. We now must stop for our summer vacation and look forward to returning to W. H. S. as Juniors.

Class History

III

We returned to our job of completing our building of education in the Fall of '48.

The framework is just about to be completed but there are still 138 laborers to help finish the job. Emma Cheek, Sydney Roberts, Boykin Gartrell, James Wallace, Pearl Wilson, Marlene Sanders, Yvonne Jeffries, Betty McCray, Marvin Thorpe, Mary Harris, June Thomas, Loreece Burrell, and Algernon Daly worked very hard so they were paid higher by becoming members of the Crown and Scepter Club. All of the laborers are making a great success in their work. Officers elected for this crew were president, James Wallace; vice-president, Boykin Gartrell; secretary, Mildred Blount; assistant secretary, Mary Harris; treasurer, Sydney Roberts; assistant treasurer, Yvonne Jeffries. With the election of Thomas Avery as Major of the Patrol Forces, George Adams winner in the musical contest, Mildred Blount and Anne Goode presidents of the New Homemakers of America and Mamie Joyner president of the Library Club, these things brought great honors to our crew.

"A Night Under the Stars", was the theme for the Junior-Senior Prom. It was one of the most enjoyable evenings for all of us because we were the first class to have a prom in our new gymnasium. Mildred Blount, Marguerite Butcher, Ruth Debnam, Gladys Hunter, Anne Goode, Yvonne Jeffries, Betty McCray and Sydney Roberts were chosen to be Debutantes of 1949. There were a large number of outstanding football players on the team. They were Thomas Jeffers, William Andrews, Ellis Jones, George Adams, Lawrence Ashley and Hubert Hayes. There is only one more story to finish and all the laborers are very happy to complete this building.

IV

Finally we found ourselves as Seniors. Yes, dignified, sophisticated and wise seniors. Gone were the frightened sensations of our lower classmen days. After feeling heady and superior for a short time we began to feel sad at the thought of leaving dear old Washington High.

Our emotions vacillated from the depth of sadness to the heights of joy as we faced our senior year and its responsibility. We chose as our president for this very important year, Fabius Tucker. His aides were Willie Haywood as vice president; Oscar Kendall, secretary; William Dunston, assistant secretary, and June Thomas as treasurer.

We now accepted added responsibility in the school program. Serving as office assistants to the principal were Marguerite Butcher, Anne Goode, Gladys Hunter, Bessie McNeil, Cardrienne Perrin, Betty Lou McCray, Delores Williams and Inez Vandergriff. The assistants in the library were Jolethia Doe, Mamie Joyner, Ernestine High, Gladys Hunter, Almeta Hasty.

In the extra curricula activities the seniors took a most active part. President of Crown and Scepter Club, June Thomas; president of Girls League, Anne Goode; president of Y-Teens, Sydney Roberts and president of Hi-Y, James Wallace. In the field of sports we point with pride to Captain Ellis Jones, Norman Bates, Lawrence Ashley, Charles Glenn, and business manager, William Dunston as football stars. In basketball we contributed Ellis Jones, Owen Ivey, Earl Richardson, Delmar Jones, and Willie Haywood, Lawrence Ashley. Cheerleaders, Jolethia Doe, Jeannette Fields, Betty Lou McCray, Ophelia Matthews, Mamie Joyner, Pearl Wilson, Delores Williams, Cardrienne Perrin, Anne Goode, Iris Wilson, Hettie Griffis. Many days in our senior year are highlighted by happy memories but perhaps the day that will long remain freshest in our memory is the day we received our class rings. We now wear the badge of our seniority.

No activity afforded us more pleasure than the Glee Club. We contributed to the school programs; made a visit to Fort Bragg; sang for the Lions Club at a luncheon meeting; exchanged programs with the Needham Broughton and Hugh Morson schools. Engaging in these enjoyable programs were: Geraldine Burton, Emma Cheek, Jolethia Doe, Gloria Lester, Hettie Griffis, Ann

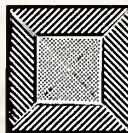

Class History

Goode, Cardrienne Perrin, Evelyn Moultrie, Pearl Willson, Jeannette Fields, Iris Wilson, June Thomas, George Adams, Joseph Whitaker, John Goode, Earl Raines, Charles Glenn, Warren Baldwin, John Smith and Audrey Jarnagin.

Among the many delightful affairs that gladdened the hearts of a score or more of the young ladies in the senior class was the Debutante Ball. On this occasion the following were presented to society: Patricia Allen, Loreece Burrell, Emma Cheek, Rebecca Delane, Jolethia Doe, Jeannette Fields, Audrey Jarnagin, Mamie Joyner, Gloria Lester, Ophelia Matthews, Mildred McNeil, Cardrienne Perrin, Delores Williams, Evelyn Moultrie and Pearl Wilson.

And so the chapters have unfolded revealing the history of the class of 1950 and now the final pages are being written. Washington High School has left its imprint on the lives of each of us. The future will tell how well these pages have been written. The past is done. From the callow freshmen of 1946 we have grown to the finished product—the seniors of 1950. So one hundred and twenty one loyal sons and daughters of Washington High bid you, our alma mater, adieu. May your good influence continue to benefit all mankind.

We wish to thank our advisers Miss M. B. Bugg, Mrs. V. K. Newell and Mr. P. H. Williams for their guidance in helping us through.

Prophecy

Prophetess Yvonne Jeffries, Gloria Fields and prophet Joseph Whitaker are making a tour of the United States in the new 1960 Atomic Power Locomotive. The object of this tour is to gather the graduates of 1950 to see if the things they prophesied materialized.

As they dined in a down town restaurant of proprietor Nathan Becoat, they were entertained with soft dinner music by Earl Raines. They were made welcome by hostesses, Marguerite Butcher, Juanita Freeman and Ida Silver. There was a little time left, so they suggested that they hire a car from "The John C. Smith Co.," to see the famous bridge the engineers, Boykin Gartrell, Leon Holloway, Robert Waldon, William Daniel, and contractors Claude Watkins, James Wallace, Harold Taylor, Delma Jones and Richmond Wall had erected. As they were on their way to the site of the bridge they saw on a billboard that "Deb Debnam" and his orchestra which consisted of Fabius Tucker, Douglas Harrison, Hubert Hayes, and Maurice Haywood, featuring vocalist Jeanette Fields, and the owner himself, Ronald Debnam, were coming to town.

Relaxed and comfortable, the trio smoothly moved to the next state which was Pennsylvania, they were met by famous Psychiatrist, Mildred Blount who directed them to one of the largest hotels owned by Floyd Matthews. This was designed by John White; bricks were laid by some very capable Brick Masons William Womble, William Young, Clarence Saulter, and Owen Ivey. Being very tired, the travelers retired to their respective quarters. The radio was tuned in to the early morning news commentator, Thomas Avery who gave clear concise up to date news. After breakfast the travelers were rushed to the air port in the 1960 Mercury designed by Algernon Daly where they boarded a plane piloted by Charles Cameron. The trio were made comfortable by hostesses Lula Pope, Josephine Lucas, Alberta Smith and Delois High.

Arriving in Ohio, they were met by Inez Vandergriff, a very successful business woman. Prophetess, Gloria Fields decided to visit the famous designing establishment owned by Jolethia Doe, and Josephine Manuel. Prophetess Yvonne Jeffries decided to visit a swanky beauty parlor owned by Virginia Taylor, with her very capable operators Ora Lassiter, Mary Rogers, Marie Rogers, Helen Gales, Ruth Manley, Barbara Evans, Grace Mitchell, Verba Morris, and Leanne Durham. Prophet Joseph Whitaker decided to visit one of the Ritz Tailoring Shops owned by Ellis Jones. Everyone would meet later at the Art Gallery to see the works of Eula Riddick, Bessie McNeill, and Warren Baldwin. Virgil Ray, a successful business man gave them a very fine send-off to Indiana. As they rode along comfortably, Prophet Joseph Whitaker tuned in the radio. Radio Technicians William Lester and Wilbert Williams have made great improvements on the radio.

Prophetess Yvonne Jeffries read the paper and saw that Lawyers, Mary Harris and Ernestine High are pleading their first case. She also saw a column that Journalist Pearl Wilson, will make her visit to Jacksonville, Florida. She saw that a Missionary, Willie Meadows is going to make a trip to Africa to educate the natives. Gloria Fields met some teachers going to a Texas conference, Teachers: Biology, Marlene Saunders; Social Science, Ophelia Matthews, and Earl Richardson; Home Economics, Martha Atkins, Cardrienne Perrin; Commercial, Gladys Hunter, Ola Evans; Elementary, Betty Woods, Gloria Lester, Sydney Roberts; Mathematics, Lela Walker.

As the train came into Ohio they were met by a famous Doctor Oscar Kendall who carried them to meet the local hospital staff who were Doctor Loomis Peebles, Nurses Iris Wilson, Mildred McNeil, Mamie Joyner and Emma Cheek doing research work. They boarded the train to Colorado where they were met by a famous president of an insurance company, Marvin Thorpe who carried them through his establishment. They entered a large room where there were many desks with stenographers namely: Mary Johnson, Evelyn Moultrie, Betty McCray, Yvonne Cooke, Patricia Allen, Vivian Wesley, Rebecca Delaine, Audrey Jarnagin, and Marguerite McDougal. The prophets decided to take in a movie which had a musical review starring vocalist Charles Glenn and George Adams; on the sport reel they were very impressed to see William Andrews, William Dunston, Lawrence Ashley and Norman Bates officiating in a college football game. After the movie they dined at a restaurant owned by Ulysses Jones, and Jessie Watkins. Before catching a plane to Hollywood, California, they visited a moving picture studio where they met famous stars namely: Anne Goode, Gloria Thorpe, Ruth Debnam, Hettie Griffis, Geraldine Burton, Agnes Parker and Delores Williams. After leaving the studio they dined with publicists, Lewis Ray, John Goode and Stage Manager Harold Jeffries. The trio decided to go to the theater to see June Thomas perform as a Concert Pianist.

The Prophetess and the Prophet of the graduating class of 1950 were very much impressed to see that the prophecy had materialized so well.

My Ideal

IDEAL GIRL

"Beautiful in form and feature,
Lovely as the day,
Can there be so fair a creature,
Formed of common clay."

Our ideal girl of the senior class of 1950 must possess the lustrous hair and ever glowing eyes of Ophelia Matthews. Her skin must have the smooth velvet texture of Betty McCray. She shall have the deep round dimples of Sidney Roberts, plus the pleasing smile of Eula Riddick. She shall have the height of Anne Goode, with the Venus like physique of Ida Silver. Her taste for clothes shall be that of Marguerite Butcher, which shall make her as popular as Cardrienne Perrin and Rebecca Delanc. She must possess the quiet dignity of Mildred Blount and the magnetic character of Gloria Thorpe. Her culture must be equivalent to that of Verba Morris.

The ideal girl must also possess the musical ability of June Thomas and Pearl Wilson. Add to this the scholastic ability of Emma Cheek and Mary Harris.

We believe that if such a creature exists she is not only beautiful but also inimitable.

IDEAL BOY

In the selection of the ideal boy of the senior class of 1950, we have made a thorough study of the outstanding qualities of the boys in our class and have come to the following conclusion: The ideal boy should have the physique of John White and height of Robert Hall, the dark brown wavy hair of Marvin Thorpe and the smooth brown complexion of Ulysses Jones, with the dreamy eyes of Harold Taylor. His personality must match that of Owen Ivey and popularity of Charles Glenn. His voice should be as sweet as that of George Adams, and as handsome as Virgil Ray. His taste in clothes must equal that of Forrest Wilson. Blended with the superb culture of Boykin Gartrell and the scholastic ability of Algernon Daly, governed by the leadership of Fab Tucker and the loyalty and sincerity of James Wallace. His friendliness must equal that of William Dunston, and his social life must be as well rounded as that of Nathan Becoat. He must compete on the basketball court with Ellis Jones and just posses the wit of Floyd Matthews. His financial capacity must be that of Charles Cameron.

ECHO'S OF THE Y-TEEN CONFERENCE

On the morning of August 22, six White and one Negro Y-Teen set out for Camp Ilahee located about 32 miles from Asheville, N. C. (The camp is usually a camp for White girls.) I was sent as an exchange delegate. By exchange delegate I mean 10 White girls were sent to the Negro conference and I was one of the 10 Negro girls sent to the White conference. The girls came from North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia and the District of Columbia.

A conference day included morning and evening worship, discussions on Religion and Psychology, Recreation and Club Clinics. We also had a choice in workshops which included Music, Recreation, Vocational Guidance, Creative Writing, Worship, Dramatics and Arts and Crafts.

At night the real fun began. During the course of the week we had a Tackie Party, Adviser talent show, Y-Teen talent show, and a Square Dance.

I was most impressed with the feeling of oneness. Everyone was concerned about the happiness of the other.

My happiest moment came with the decision of the conference to have one big conference starting in 1950. During the past years two conferences have been held. One at Ilahee for White girls and the other at E. W. Young for the Negro girls. After exchanging delegates from each conference the girls decided to have one conference next summer.

And so—Next summer the girls from this school will go to the interacial Y-Teen conference at Ilahee. A rich experience for any girl.

GOAL CROSSED BUT BLUES SCORE WIN RALEIGH, OCTOBER, 1949

Coach Pete Williams and his Washington High youngsters returned home Saturday with Victory No. 3 without defeat but their unscored-on record was left behind in Wilmington.

The Little Blues chalked up their third straight in the Port City Friday night, turning back Williston High, 13-6 but the six-pointer which the home club pushed across shortly after the second half began ended a string of scoreless games for the Capital City preps.

Kinston, beaten 16-0, and Lexington trounced 36-0, and were held outside the Blues' goal but Williston penetrated the double stripes on a five yard plunge by the loser's Thomas.

But that was all the unbeaten Blues would allow their hosts.

Walter Terrell, Blues' guard pounced on a fumble by Brown in the Williston end zone in the second quarter to provide a 6-0 lead. Brown was attempting to punt but fumbled. Thomas Thorpe was stopped on the extra point try. The losers squared things in the third period with a 15-yard penalty aiding the drive.

THORPE EDGES OUT EVANS IN SCORING BATTLE FOR BLUES, RALEIGH, OCTOBER 30, 1949

Thomas Thorpe won a scoring duel from team mate Charlie Evans and Washington High won a grid scuffle with Dunbar High of Lexington Friday night.

The action took place as Coach Pete Williams Little Blues were rolling to their second straight victory before a good crowd at Chavis Park. The locals are unbeaten.

Thorpe crossed into pay dirt three times, once more than Evans as the two backs vied for point honors in the impressive victory. Washington High completed the 36-0 rout on a sixth touchdown when Thomas Jeffers pitched to Henry Scott.

BLUES OPPOSE UNBEATEN FOE IN DARDEN CLUB, RALEIGH, OCTOBER 15, 1949

Washington High's Little Blues, their goal penetrated for the first time last Friday, go after their fourth straight victory Friday night at Chavis Park. Game time is 8 o'clock.

BLUES TAKE EARLY LEAD AGAINST ROCKY MOUNT

The Little Blues took their fifth straight victory when they met Booker T. Washington of Rocky Mount on October 21.

It was early in the second period when the Blues really began to march and they continued to lead. The game finally ended by a score of 28-0.

LITTLE BLUES TOP FAYETTEVILLE 31-0

It was homecoming for the Little Blues who scored two quick touchdowns in the first period and coasted the rest of the way. The Blues routed E. E. Smith High of Fayetteville before a mass crowd by a score of 31-0.

LITTLE BLUES BEAT CHAPEL HILL 21-0

Seeking revenge from the Lincoln High team of Chapel Hill, who handed the Blues their only defeat last season, was whipped without difficulty by the Blues by an easy score of 21-0.

WASHINGTON HIGH DEFEATS DILLARD

The Blues went into a three-way tie for first place in the conference with Dillard High and Hillside High of Durham, when they defeated Dillard of Goldsboro 13-0. The Blues received great play from their line which provided for a score in the early minutes of the game.

BLUES WIN STATE TITLE 2-0

Washington High of Raleigh defeated Highland High of Gastonia by a tight score of 2-0 early in the fourth quarter to win the State Negro Class A Championship.

The first half of the game was strictly a defensive show. Each team entered the game with identical 10-0 records.

A crowd of approximately 2,000 fans braved extremely cold weather to see the two perennial contenders battle for the title.

MORE POWER TO YOU!

Since the end of the war when materials again became available this Company has been engaged in the greatest expansion program in its history. New electric generating plants — new substations — thousands of miles of additional rural and transmission lines and improved facilities all over our area have resulted. The program is continuing. It is an assurance that you will continue to have plenty of electric power for all the needs of home, industry and farm in the foreseeable future.

TIME FLIES

Before you know it, your girl or your boy will be a young woman or a young man ready for college.

WILL YOU BE READY?

There is no better, easier, or surer way to provide the necessary funds for the education of your children than through the Child's Educational Policy Plan. See a NORTH CAROLINA MUTUAL representative, have him explain the many excellent features of the Child's Educational Policy, and start your saving plan NOW!
